WYNNSTAY

1941105

Ffynhonnell / Source

Sir Herbert Lloyd Watkin Williams Wynn, Bart., Wynnstay.

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynnyddol / Annual Report 1940-41

Disgrifiad / Description

Sir Watkin Williams Wynn kindly afforded the National Library an opportunity of examining a mass of waste paper destined for disposal as salvage at Wynnstay. A number of stray manorial records were discovered, and these have been incorporated in the great series of manorial documents deposited by Sir Watkin in 1933. Among other manuscripts and documents selected were - correspondence of the children of Sir William Williams, Bart, with their father, 1716-28, and letters relating to proposed marriage alliances, a seventeenth-century school note-book of David Kyffin, a copy of James Ware: De Scriptoribus Hiberniae with marginal notes by William Maurice of Cefnybraich, 1649, and a poor-rate book of Ruabon, 1847.

In addition Sir Watkin has deposited the account rolls and books, 1627-49, of Sir Richard Wynn, Treasurer to Queen Henrietta Maria, and over forty volumes of manuscripts and tracts from the library at Wynnstay. The manuscripts include a seventeenth-century treatise on witchcraft, an account of the rebellion in Wales, an account of the Jacobite trials at Carlisle, 1746, a manuscript journal issued at Wynnstay in 1783, an inventory of theatrical costumes, 1784, three volumes of records relating to Caus and other manors in Shropshire, a transcript of Sir John Wynn's History of the Gwydir Family and other records of the Wynn family with manuscript notes by Bishop Humphreys, eight volumes of Wynn family papers, 1768-91, and twenty volumes of genealogical collections in the autograph of Joseph Morris of Shrewsbury. A number of the earlier manuscripts bear traces of the disastrous fire which destroyed much of the Wynnstay library in 1858.

There are also twenty printed tracts relating to Wales and belonging to the period 1641-1742.

For an account of this and of the earlier Wynnstay 'deposit' see The National Library of Wales Journal, Vol. II, pp. 26-32.
