One of the sad and often too frequent trends of our time is the disappearance of local newspapers.

The Library has always striven to make known its interest in preserving complete files of newspapers and periodicals--particularly, but not solely, those of Welsh interest, and it is therefore to be regretted that printers' files of newspapers, journals, and other more apparently ephemeral publications are still being destroyed instead of being added to the national collection.

Through the good offices of Mr. Goulding (the General Manager), the directors of The North Wales Chronicle have enabled the Library to acquire a file of The Flintshire Observer, 1920-42, 1944-6, 1948-9 and 1951-7, The North Wales Pioneer, 1919-28, 1930-4, 1936-42, 1944-9, and 1951-6, and useful runs of The Welsh Coast Pioneer, and The Rhyl Observer (Dept of Printed Books).

Disgrifiad / Description

Manuscripts and papers from the library of the donor's husband the late D. D. Herbert, Resolven, consisting of notes, transcripts, an eisteddfod essay, and other miscellaneous material accumulated in the course of a lifetime's study of the history of Resolven and district.

The original works of the author consist of the manuscript of 'Hanes Plwyf Resolfen' submitted to the Dolgellau National Eisteddfod, 1949, for which he shared the first prize; manuscript essays entitled 'Prydferthwch Cwm Nedd' and 'Paham y dylid cadw'r Gymraeg', being the winning entries at local eisteddfodau; and an unsuccessful entry in a competition for a handbook for schools at the Treorchy National Eisteddfod, 1928, on the subject 'Hanes deg taith i wahanol fannau o ddiddordeb yn Ne Cymru'. Among the transcripts are a volume containing surveys of the manor of Neath Ultra and Kilybebill, 1633 and 1638, taken from a manuscript in the possession of Richard J. Thomas, Neath, and copies of other documents in the John Jenkins (Resolven) Papers in the National Library of Wales; a book containing extracts from a book of old leases of the Briton Ferry estate, 1738-1811, with observations on the value of the estate written by George Tennant in 1820; a volume containing a copy of a churchwardens' account book of the two upper hamlets of Lantwit, 1821-48, and of Resolven, 1849-68, including a list of churchwardens, 1748-1866; and extracts of minutes (in pencil) of a branch of the Sons of Temperance Friendly Society at Resolven, 1884-1906. There are also numerous photocopies of original documents from the Public Record Office, the British Museum, Somerset House, and the National Library of Wales, all relating to the history of the Resolven district, including extracts from the Hearth Tax Returns, the records of the Augmentation Office, the Great Sessions Gaol Files, various wills, and the Census Returns of 1841 and 1851. Other items include a notebook containing an analysis of the Census Returns of parishes or hamlets in the hundred of Neath, 1801-1951; a minute book of a branch of the Loyal Order of Ancient Shepherds, meeting at the Vaughan Arms, Resolven, 1894-9; records of the Prince Llewelyn Lodge of the True Ivorites (Cwmavon and Neath district), including printed rules, a bank book, 1894-1908, an account book of members' contributions, 1904-37, annual returns, 1929-36, annual statements of accounts, 1833-7, and miscellaneous correspondence, receipts, and papers, 1913-38; correspondence with secretaries of friendly societies in 1957, asking for information concerning lodges formed in the Neath district; a report (printed) of Samuel Dobson on the Glyncoerrwg coalfields, 1859; a complete file of Home News, a bi-monthly newsletter sent to the men and women of Resolven serving in H.M. Forces, 1939-45, of which D. D. Herbert was editor for most of this period; copies of Traethodau hanesyddol ar Ddyffryn Nedd by Rev William Williams, Hirwaun, and William Williams ('Carw Coch'), and of Traethawd ar Gywreindedd, Hynafiaeth a Hen Bendefigion Glynn Nedd, by Taliesin Williams ('Taliesin ab Iolo Morganwg').

Dominique and enjoining him to take care of his health; a letter, written on 22 September 1796, from General Castelvèrd to his wife [or mistress?], Pauline, about the birth of a son, containing interesting news of the campaign in Germany and of the death of General Marceau; a letter (n.d.) from Ernest de Roux to the Minister of the Interior, soliciting a post in his ministry; a letter, 24 November 1805, from Marshal Soult to Marshal Berthier, the Minister of War, requesting the incorporation of a company into the Corsican battalion; a letter, 19 May 1807, to the Empress Josephine from a person who signs himself 'Frederic', concerning the birth of a child to her son, Eugene de Beauharnais, the viceroy of Italy; a letter, 23

August 1807, from Robert Campbell to le Comte d'Antraigne concerning matters of a social and personal nature; a letter (n.d., the date 13 January 1849 has been written in pencil) from A. Humboldt [Alexander von Humboldt, the German naturalist and explorer], expressing his thanks to M. de Cailleux, the director general of museums; a letter (n.d.) from Victor Hugo thanking his correspondent for his sympathy; letters, 1866-74, from Louis d'Orleans [Duc de Nemours] to M. de Cailleux concerning the acquisition and insurance of pictures, invitations to dinner, etc; a group of letters and papers, 1807-78, concerning the family of Augustin Richer, who was an officer in the Hussars and had held various administrative posts in the army of Napoleon, being a nephew of Marshal Lefebvre, and who, like his uncle, became reconciled later to the royalist regime, including besides letters of a personal character correspondence relating to the award to him in 1814 of the Order of the Lily and the title of Chevalier de l'ordre de St. Louis in 1817, certificates of the death of Richer in 1833 and of his wife, Marie Rose (nee Glasser) in 1847, a certificate of option of Auguste Charles Richer, their son, born in Alsace in 1810, to assume French nationality, and finally a letter from A. Bachord, 14 November 1878, addressed to 'M. le Senateur', in support of the application of his sister-in-law, Mlle. Louise Richer, to keep a tobacco shop in the neighbourhood of Troyes in compensation for the loss of this privilege in Obernai in Alsace, instancing her father's distinguished services under the first Emperor and the fact that she was a grand-niece of Marshal Lefebvre. There are also two letters in Italian, one from Garibaldi, 24 March 1864, thanking the people of Malta for their welcome, and the other, 13 August 1898, from Queen Maria Isabella of Spain to her niece, acknowledging receipt of a letter, with comments on the misfortunes of the day; a testimonial in German, 18 August 1547, in favour of a pastor Schmid of Nuremberg; a letter in Latin, 1674, by Caspar Saggittarius, respecting a manuscript of Johan Heinrich Boecler; a panegyric written in Latin by C. Arnold of Nuremberg; and copies of various inscriptions in Latin and Italian.

A group of twenty-one deeds of Devonshire interest, 1428-1766, mainly relating to properties in the parish of Sutcombe, but also concerning lands in Abbots Bickington, Bradworthy, Grawley, Milton Damarel, Pancrasweek, Virginistow, and West Putford; four deeds, 1768-1804, referring to plantations in the island of Tobago; a conveyance, 1815, for £357. 10. 0 of an undivided moiety in thirteen slaves; an appointment, 1813, by the Earl of Mulgrave of John Forbes Huppell to be a clerk of the cheque on the establishment of the ordnance at Newfoundland; and a miscellaneous collection of letters, receipts, and notices, 1950-61, relating to the donor's membership and support of the Wild Life Protection Society of South Africa.

A number of mid-nineteenth century albums containing a variety of topographical prints, engravings, and sketches, caricatures, and satirical, humorous, and sporting prints and sketches, etc., and several coloured posters published by the Department of Nature Conservation, Cape Province Administration, depicting wild life (Dept of Pictures and Maps).

Mr. Llewellyn-Taylor has again proved to be one of the most munificent friends of the Library in both the number and the quality of his gifts to the Department of Printed Books. For many years his donations have enhanced the Library's holdings of incunabula and modern books and periodicals, and with characteristic generosity he has this year presented over 200 books (Dept of Printed Books).

Among them may be noted a 1505 edition of Thomas a Kempis's De imitatione; Magna Carta cum aliis antiquis statutis . . ., 1531, A profitable book treating of the lawes of Englande by John Perkins, 1586; a 1557 edition of Epistolae obscurorum virorum; Thomas Stapleton's Antidota evengelica contra horum temporum haereses . . . (Antwerp, 1595), in contemporary German binding with blind-stamped tooling and panels; A Latin Prayer Book printed in London in 1574; works by Thucydides (Basle, 1540); Cicero (Venice, 1550); Paulus Orosius (c. 1520-40); Nicholas de Grouchy, 1555; and Richard Streinnius (Geneva, 1559).

Among publications of more recent date are a French Prayer Book of 1689; a Dictionnaire militaire (Paris, 1758); The speech of Edmund Burke on American taxation, 19 April 1774 (4th edition, 1783);... a detailed narrative of the assassination of the Rt. Hon. Spencer Perceval . . . 11th May 1812, and The Trial of J. Bellingham . . . for the said murder; and Samuel Sharpe's Description of the Egyptian Court erected in the Crystal Palace by Owen Jones, architect, and Joseph Bonomi, sculptor (London, 1854).

Two interesting items on account of their association with the donor's family are a copy of the 1827 edition of The Holy Bible which belonged to Mrs. Eliza Llewellyn and contains manuscript notes and newspaper cuttings of family events, and The Book of Common Prayer (Oxford, 1845) which belonged to Lord John Taylor, and also containing notes of family events.

In addition there are numerous modern publications concerned with the preservation of wild life in which the donor is actively interested, and several books dealing with the First World War.

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1964-65

Disgrifiad / Description

Three manuscripts handed down to the depositor by his mother, Lady Robinson, and originally belonging to her grandfather, Thomas Bevan ('Caradawc y Fenni'), one of the founders and first secretary (1833-9) of the famous Abergavenny Welsh literary society called 'Cymreigyddion y Fenni'. The first of these manuscripts is an autograph book, which also contains numerous photographs and engravings and a few letters and newspaper cuttings (NLW MS 12353D). The autographs and portraits are of distinguished Welshmen, men of letters and prominent figures in eisteddfod circles. The autographs were collected mainly at eisteddfodau, 1858-81, though signatures of prominent personages collected before this period have been pasted in. The book is well indexed and as it contains notes on, and pseudonyms of, many local bards, it is a useful work of reference. Among the several hundreds of autographs collected may be mentioned those of H. A. Bruce, Crawshay Bailey, Thomas Charles, Bala, Richard Davies ('Mynyddog'), Thomas Edwards ('Caerfallwch'), Robert Ellis ('Cynddelw'), Evan Evans ('Ieuan Glan Geirionydd'), Howel Harris, Joseph Harris ('Gomer'), Dean Howell ('Llawdden'), John Ceiriog Hughes ('Ceiriog'), Joseph Hughes ('Carn Ingli'), Hugh Hughes ('Tegai'), Rev John Jenkins, Morlaix, Brittany, John Jones ('Tegid'), John Jones ('Mathetes'), John Jones ('Talhaiarn'), John Emlyn Jones ('Ioan Emlyn'), Owen Wynne Jones ('Glasyns'), Richard Robert Jones ('Dic Aberdaron'), Lewis William Lewis ('Llew Llwyfo'), Sir Samuel Rush Meyrick, Sir Charles Morgan, bart., David Owen ('Brutus'), Richard Parry ('Gwalchmai'), Robert Parry ('Robin Ddu Eryri'), Benjamin Price ('Cymro Bach'), Thomas Price ('Carnhuanawc'), Professor Rice Rees, Jonathan Reynolds ('Nathan Dyfed'), John Roberts ('Ieuan Gwyllt'), Thomas Stephens, Merthyr, Thomas Thomas, principal of the Baptist College, Pontypool, William Thomas ('Islwyn'), Henry Vincent, London, David Williams ('Alaw Goch'), John Williams ('Ab Ithel'), Morris Williams ('Nicander'), Rowland Williams ('Hwfa Mon'), and Thomas Williams ('Gwilym Morganwg'). Among the photographs and engravings are included those of Thomas Bevan ('Caradawc'), Thomas Edwards ('Twm o'r Nant'), John Elias, Christmas Evans, John Evans (the Elizabethan astrologer), David Griffiths, Nevern, Joseph Harris ('Gomer'), Owen Jones ('Owain Myfyr'), Theophilus Jones, the Brecknockshire historian, John Jones ('Ioan Emlyn'), John Jones, ('Talhaiarn'), William Ellis Jones ('Cawrdaf'), Lewis Morris ('o Fon'), William Owain Pughe, Robert Parry ('Robin Ddu Eryri'), Joshua Thomas, the Baptist historian, Micah Thomas, William Williams ('Gwilym Peris'), and Edward Williams ('Iolo Morganwg').

The other two manuscripts are scrapbooks containing an interesting collection of newspaper cuttings, printed notices, and a few manuscript letters assembled by 'Caradawc' (NLW MSS 12354-5F). The bulk of the cuttings, covering the period 1831-63, are taken from periodicals and local newspapers such as Monmouthshire Merlin, Merthyr Guardian, and Seren Gomer, with occasional extracts from English periodicals. They deal in the main with political, social, and cultural events of local and national interest; there are also frequent notices and reports of local eisteddfodau, particularly those of 'Cymreigyddion y Fenni', theatre notices, obituaries of notable Welshmen, letters to the press on subjects of Welsh cultural interest, poems in English and Welsh, and verses in praise of local gentry and commemorating topical events, etc. Items meriting special mention are a printed appeal, dated 22 August 1832, entitled Anerchiad at Genedl yr Hen Gymru oddi wrth Cymreigyddion Caerludd, being an eloquent plea for the use of the Welsh language in the lawcourts; a printed appeal in Welsh under the caption Cymmru, Cymmro, a Chymmraeg, 16 November 1840, sent out by 'Caradawc' to members of 'Cymreigyddion y Fenni', of which he had then ceased to be a member, appealing to them to elect to the committee of the 'Cymreigyddion' patriotic Welshmen who would rescue the society from the control of the English element and safeguard the interests of the Welsh language in accordance with the original intentions of the founders; and a full report of the opening of the Crumlin viaduct which appeared in the Hereford Times, 6 June 1857.

VOCABULARIUM BIBLIAE

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1964-65

Disgrifiad / Description

A fourteenth-century vellum manuscript of English provenance containing a Latin text of the Vocabularium Bibliae or Dictionarium Biblicum or Summa super difficilia Bibliae, i.e., an explanation in dictionary form of obscure words in the Bible, by William Briton (Breton) (ob. 1356), a comparatively unknown British theologian, who has been described in turn as a Franciscan and a Cistercian, and who is said by John Bale, bishop of Ossory, 'apparently by a guess', to have been a Welshman (see D.N.B., Vol. VI, p. 359) (NLW MS 18952C). The volume consists of 104 leaves, measuring approximately 258mm. by 192mm., written in double columns, 41 to 45 lines to each column, with a marginal catchword for each entry, a large red and blue decorative capital with extensive red and blue marginal penwork for each successive introductory letter of the alphabet, and alternate red and blue initial letters for successive dictionary entries. The first page is slightly rubbed, and original flaws in some leaves have been carefully avoided by the scribe. The text is incomplete at the end, lacking all entries after 'Thorus'. The volume is bound in eighteenth century calf, rebounded and repaired, with two metal clasps and catches.

On the first fly-leaf are the inscriptions '49. Dictionarium Biblicum', 'Summa Britonis super difficilia Bible', and 'Dictionarium Biblicum', and on the inside upper cover the signature of 'Tho. Martin', i.e., Thomas Martin (1697-1771), known as 'Honest Tom Martin of Palgrave', an antiquary who owned a large collection of manuscripts, some of which he sold in 1769 and the remainder were dispersed after his death. The present work does not appear to have been published in its entirety, but specimens from it were printed by A. M. Bandini in his Catalogus codicum Latinorum . . . Bibliothecae Mediceae Laurentianae, Vol. IV, pp. 213 et seq, and by Ducange in the preface to his Glossarium ad Scriptores mediae et infimae Latinitatis. A complete, but slightly abridged, version of the text, written c. 1400, is contained in NLW MS 3090.

The Friends of the National Library of Wales contributed £80 towards the cost of this manuscript.

Two items from the Bala Theological College Library:

A composite volume containing imperfect copies of Gerard Lei(i)gh: The Accedence of Armorie (London: Henrie Ballard, 1597), and John Monipenny: The Abridgment or summary of the Scots Chronicle [sic] (n.d.), an imperfect copy of George Owen Harry: The Genealogy of the high and mighty Monarch, James ... King of great Brittain; etc. (London: Simon Stafford for Thomas Salisbury, 1604) in which some of the plates are wanting and pp. 63-7 have been supplied in manuscript, with some extra pages containing manuscript additions (the genealogy of Thomas Price of Llanvylling, gent. (b. 1627), and Jane Vaughan, his wife), a copy of Robert Vaughan: British Antiquities revived (Oxford: Hen. Hall for Thomas Robinson, 1662), and an imperfect copy of [William Camden, Reges, reginae, nobiles et allii in ecclesia collegiata B. Petri Westmonasterii sepulti, usque ad annum 1606 (Londini, 1606)] (NLW MS 18972B). The volume came from the library of Principal T. Charles Edwards and contains the signatures or names of Robt. Saunderson, May 27, 1811, Jane Vaughan, and Charles Saunderson, 'Siarl Wyn o Benllyn'.

A small manuscript volume of Welsh verse (part of a kind of interlude, etc., written or transcribed c. 1761), now in a fragile condition and wanting a cover (NLW MS 18973A). The contents correspond, with minor differences, to pp. 1-34 of Thomas Williams: Mynegiad yr Hen Oesoedd (London, 1761), concluding at stanza 150 with the following note: 'y chwaneg or Hanes yn Canlyn yn Rif 2 llyfr nesa. William Hughes 1761.' (cf. also NLW MS 838 B and Bangor MS 92, pp.53-63). At the end of the volume are miscellaneous entries of Anglesey interest ('Dangosiad pa flwyddyn o Oed Crist y bildwyd Eglwysydd sir Fon') and a list of incumbents of the parishes of Llanddeusant and Llanfechell to about 1750.

A group of manuscripts of the late Albert Tilley, verger of Brecon Cathedral:

Exercise books numbered 1-93, together with about fifty more notebooks and exercise books, consisting of voluminous notes on historical, genealogical, and heraldic material relating in the main to the town and county of Brecon. Material has been abstracted from standard works on economic, social, and ecclesiastical history as well as from journals such as Archaeologia Cambrensis, Y Cymmrodor, Transactions of the Honourable Society of Cymmrodorion, Old Wales, The Red Dragon, Bye-Gones, Old Brecon Chips, The Gentleman's Magazine, and Transactions of the Woolhope Society, from rare eighteenth century newspapers such as The Hereford Journal and The Gloucester Journal, from papers of later date such as The Cambrian, The Carmarthen Journal, The Welshman, The Silurian, The Brecon County Times, The Cardiff and Merthyr Guardian, etc., from the manuscript collections of the National Library of Wales and of the Cardiff Central Library, from the works of the well-known Brecknockshire historians Theophilus Jones, John Lloyd, and Edwin Poole, and the manuscript material of Hugh Thomas, and from an unpublished compilation of the late Miss Gwennlian E. F. Morgan. There are several exercise books filled with notes and sketches relating to the armorial bearings of Brecknockshire families, and extensive transcripts have been made of parish registers and of monumental inscriptions. The accessibility and value of the work are enhanced by the several card indexes and alphabetical guides to the collection.

Based on this material are copious notes on various topics and aspects of Brecknockshire history, and pp. 1-50, 63-162, including an index, of a systematic study of Brecon in manuscript, in which the sources are carefully noted.

The papers also contain a file of typescript notes concerning the Breconshire Agricultural Society; some historical notes in the hand of John Lloyd compiled in pursuance of his historical researches; a file of notes, transcripts, and correspondence addressed to J. L. Morgan and T. D. Morgan, The Hayes, Cardiff, relating to the parish of Llanfeugan; a manuscript volume, compiled c. 1880, of transcripts of inscriptions, sometimes with additional notes and sketches, of tablets and monuments in Brecknockshire churches and a few Nonconformist chapels, drawings of archaeological remains, etc.; a file of transcripts in pencil of monumental inscriptions in the churches and churchyards of Llanbyddydd, Llansanffraid, Llaneleu, Cwmdy, Crickhowell, Patrishow, and Llanbedr; an alphabetical index of coats of arms of certain Welsh families; a scrap-book of newspaper cuttings relating to the Turco-Greek war of 1897; and a group of eleven deeds, mainly of Brecknockshire interest, 17th-19th cent.
