REGISTER OF THE COUNCIL OF WALES AND THE MARCHES

1973115

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1972-73

Disgrifiad / Description

A large folio volume, ff. 149, used to f. 81, containing a late 17 cent. transcript of a register of the Council of Wales and the Marches, 1590-1623 (NLW MS 20967F). The contents of this register, mainly patents of appointments, orders, and letters, are already known from B. M. Egerton MS. 2882 (previously the 'Dovaston MS.' and calendared under that name in HMC 13th Report, Appendix, Pt. IV, pp. 247-82). The NLW MS apart from the omission of a few documents, corresponds to ff. 9v-131v of the Dovaston MS. The manuscript was formerly Phillipps MS. 6463, and was bought by Phillipps with the manuscripts of Augustine Cooper (no. 5 in Cooper's catalogue).

`THE BOOKE OF FFREEHOLDERS' & `GLAN LLYN 1807-1831'

1973116

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1972-73

Disgrifiad / Description

(1) A manuscript volume, ff. 49, bound in half calf. F.1r is inscribed 'The booke of ffreeholders', f.2r contains an incomplete list of 'Nomina ministrorum Com. Denbigh', and ff. 4-43 a list of the ?freeholders of co. Denbigh arranged according to hundreds and townships (NLW MS 21104B). The names which can be checked are those of early 17 cent. persons, and the list was probably compiled at that time, the volume being bound at a later date. (2) A manuscript volume, ff. 47, bound in full green morocco and inscribed on the outer cover 'Glan Llyn, 1807 to 1831' (NLW MS 21105B). The contents include lists of persons who visited Glan Llyn [near Bala, co. Merioneth], 1807-31, presumably as guests of the Williams-Wynn family, for shooting and fishing, statistics relating to birds and fish shot or caught, and entries of a more general nature describing the activities of some of the parties. Both volumes bear the bookplate of R. W. Lamb.

VOLUME OF 'AWDLAU' AND 'CYWYDDAU'

1973117

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1972-73

Disgrifiad / Description

A very imperfect manuscript (previously Hartsheath MS 1834) now consisting of ff. 57, many mere fragments, repaired and rebound at University College of North Wales, Bangor, in 1971. The extant folios bear pagination numbers ranging from 49 to 330. The contents consist of transcripts, in a number of early 17 cent. hands, of Welsh 'awdlau' and 'cywyddau', many incomplete, including poems attributed to William Kynwal, Edmond Pris, Morys Dwyfech, Rys Kain, William Llyn, Gruffydd Hiraethog, Tudur Aled, Huwgh Lloyd, Morys ap Hywel ap Tudur, Tho. Prys 'o Blas Iolyn', Iolo Goch, Sion Tudur, Capten Wm. Middleton, Robt. Clidro, Ieuan Tew Ieuaf, Dd. ap Howell, Gwilym ap Ieuan Hen, Ieuan Deulwyn, David ap Edmond, Davydd Nanmor, Lewis Morganwg, Risiart Phillip, Dd. Lloyd ap Llewelyn ap Gruffydd, Owen Waed Da, and Gutto'r Glynn (NLW MS 20968B). There are numerous 18 cent. marginal inscriptions, mainly personal names and dates. According to a note in the hand of the last owner on the first surviving page, the manuscript 'was found at Bryn Eisteddfod, co. Denbigh, in 1903, among the contents of that house'. Through the courtesy of Lieut-Colonel H. M. C. Jones-Mortimer, D.L., J.P., Hartsheath, Mold, and the good offices of Mr. A. G. Veysey, M.A., County Archivist, Clwyd County Record Office, Hawarden, the Library had initially been permitted to acquire a facsimile of this volume.

TRANSCRIPT OF A MANUSCRIPT COMMUNICATED BY JOHN ANSTIS

1973118

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1972-73

Disgrifiad / Description

A manuscript volume bound in brown hide, with uncut edges and blind tooling, containing (a) 'A Transcript of a Manuscript communicated by Mr. John Anstis which had been Copied from the original in the Bodleian Library Med. 40 . . .', being transcripts of three Cornish mystery plays, viz. 'ordinale de origine mundi', 'passio Domini nostri Iesu Christi', and 'ordinale de resurrectione Domini nostri Iesu xti' side by side with English translations of the same by John Keigwin, gent., 1695, and (b) a transcript of a manuscript then in the possession of Mrs. Wyn of Bodysgallen, [Llan-rhos, co. Caernarvon], containing pedigrees and Welsh poetry, etc., the original of which (now lost) is thought to have been in the hand of William Salesbury of Llanrwst ('Adskriv o lyvyr ym medhiant Mrs. Wyn o vod ysgalhan A.D. 1701. yr hwn a sgrivennase (hyd yr wi yn i vedhwl) Wilm. Salsbri o Lan Rwst ynghylch amser y vrenhines Elsbeth') (NLW MS 21001B). Sections of the manuscript have been misplaced in binding, and instead of (a) ff. 1-73, ff. 1-9, then two cancelled pages, pp. 10-[128], pp. 1-68, and (b) pp. 1-254, with a few blank and unnumbered pages, the present order is (a) ff. 39b-73, ff. 1-9, followed by two cancelled pages, pp. 10-34, title-page, ff. 1-39a, pp. 35-[128], p. 1-68; and (b) pp. 1-82, 107-14, 83-106, 115-254. The signature of 'Edw. Lhwyd' occurs on the original title-page of (a), and the Cornish mystery plays with translation appear to have been transcribed sometime between 1695 and 1709 by ?William Jones and others from MSS. Bodl. 28556B-7 (MSS. Cornish e 2-3), the original of the Cornish plays being MS. Bodl. 2639 (now 791). The other section of the manuscript was transcribed in 1701 or soon afterwards, and contains 'Pum Cystowglwyth Kymry', 'Y Pum Brehinllwyth [sic] Kembry', '... Englynion Duat', 'Achae'r Salbriaid', part of 'Plant Brychan', and of ['Bonedd yr Arwyr'] and ['Bonedd y Saint'], 'Englynion y Beddeu', 'Bonedd y gwyr goreu o genedl Kembri' and '... henwe gwyr a vu gedyrna henwe yr Arve y buant yn i ddwyn' followed by 'englynion', 'cywyddau', etc., by Ris Penhardd, Doct. Jo: Kent, Taliesin, Syr David Trevor, Gruffydd [sic] ap Tudur ap Howel, Deio ap Ieuan Duy, Aneirin Gwawdrydd, Davydd ap Gwylim, Lewis Glyn Kothi, Ieuan Gethin ap Ieuan ap Llesion, Meredydd ap Rys, Grufyd [sic] Llwyd ap David ap Eigion o Gaer Einion ym Powys, Robin dduy, Mastr Harri ap Hoel, Ievan Tew brydydd, Iolo Goch, David Nanmor, Gutyn Owain, Lhevelyn Goch ap Mauric hen, and Roeger Kffin [sic], etc., with part of ['Hanes Taliesin'] in prose (pp. 141-5). At the end of the volume is a transcript of a colophon from Lambeth Palace MS. 46, with a brief reference to Lambeth Palace MS. 195, followed by 'An Extract of Mr. Wanley's account of an Irish MS, which a Gentleman communicated to the Royal Society Dec. 23. 1702'. Attached to one of the end-papers at the beginning is a small piece of paper containing a copy of the letters on an early inscribed stone with the endorsement 'From Llandyssyl Churchyard in Cardigan shire, see Mr. Evans's Letter Jan. [?] 30 1702/3'. Facing f. 39b, where the original title-page should be, are an imitation of the handwriting of the original Cornish manuscript (MS. Bodl. 2639) headed 'Sampl or Lhaw yn y Kynscriv', and a list of 'The Abbreviations used by Mr. Evan Jones', etc. The notes on pp. 1 and 32 of (b) could be in the autograph of Edward Lhuyd. Inserted at the beginning is a description of the manuscript ('No. 57') subscribed 'H.G. [?Henry Gough] 18 Apr. 1871'. The manuscript is listed in HMC. 3rd Report, Appendix, p. 207.

Ffynhonnell / Source

Colonel J W Lewis-Bowen, Clynfiew, Boncath.

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1972-73

Disgrifiad / Description

Muniments of the depositor's family, comprising some 650 deeds, associated estate documents, and some family papers. The deposit divides into two groups, which came together at the end of the nineteenth century, that relating to the Lewis family of Llwyngrawys, parish of Llangoedmor, co. Cardigan, and Clynfiew (Clunfyw) on the one hand, and that of the Bowen family on the other. The Clynfiew muniments relate to lands mainly in the parish of Llangoedmor, and the parishes of Maenordeifi, Clydau, Llanfihangel Penbedw, and Cilrhedyn, co. Pembroke. The main builder of the estate was Thomas Lewis of Llwyngrawys (c. 1690-1776). There are some eighty-five deeds of the second half of the sixteenth century and of the seventeenth century relating to the Pembrokeshire part of the estate; many of these centre on James Mores of Clydau, including his marriage settlement, 1607. Part of the estate in the parish of Clydau bought by Thomas Lewis in 1831 once belonged to the Morgan(n) family (cf. D. W.B. s.n. Maurice Morgan(n)), which is represented in a number of deeds. There are rentals for the Clynfiew estate for 1825-37 and 1886-1916. Associated papers include some eighteenth and nineteenth century correspondence of members of the Lewis family, mostly relating to estate matters, and some accounts, among them accounts for rebuilding at Llwyngrawys, 1752.

Thomas Bowen of Cardigan (and Pantyderi, parish of Llanfair Nant-gwyn, co. Pembroke, which estate he sold) married in 1815 a daughter of William Williams of Tre-fach and Cardigan (1732-99, D W B.). The estates of William Williams that passed to the Bowens through this marriage lay mainly in the parishes of Bridell, Llantood, and Whitchurch (Llanfair Nant-gwyn; the latter was formerly a chapelry of the parish of Whitchurch), co. Pembroke, and the town of Cardigan. For the Pembrokeshire properties there are again some eighty-five deeds for the period 1549-1700. William Williams's second wife was Elinor Morgan of Cardigan; a substantial group of deeds relate to property of the Morgan family in Cardigan, and one bundle to property in Tre-lech a'r Betws, co. Carmarthen, 1692-1764. Connected with the Williams - Bowen group are an account book of William Williams, including accounts as agent of Maurice Morgan, 1780 - 99; account books relating to the trusteeship of the children of William Williams, 1804-21; rentals of the Tre-fach estate, 1818-20; plans relating to the building of Plas-y-bridell, c. 1881; valuation of the Plas-y-bridell estate, 1886; commissions of Col. Essex Bowen, 1783-98; correspondence relating to the possible candidature of J. W. Bowen (as a Liberal) in the 1874 election; and a bundle of papers relating to Hafod Colliery, parish of Llanwonno, co. Glamorgan, 1879-85 (J. W. Bowen was arbitrator).

Other miscellaneous material includes a number of commonplace books, one of them containing substantial notes on Welsh history, c. 1800; two logs kept on board H.M.S. Royal Adelaide and other ships, 1837-8; and two emblazoned pedigree rolls, one of David Morgan 'of Lhanbylan' and David Moris 'of Ffynnone Bychan', c. 1700, continued down to the Williams family of Tre-fach, the other of the Bowens of Llwyngwair down to James Bowen (high sheriff, 1671), copied from the original in 1788.

A preliminary list of this deposit is available.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS, BRECONSHIRE

1973196

Ffynhonnell / Source

Mr T F G Young, LL.B., Clerk of the Breconshire County Council, by direction of the Lord Chancellor.

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynnyddol / Annual Report 1972-73

Disgrifiad / Description

With the disappearance of the Courts of Quarter Sessions at the end of 1971, the Lord Chancellor, under Section 4 (I) of the Public Records Act 1958, appointed the National Library of Wales as a place of deposit for the records of the Quarter Sessions of the county of Brecon, excepting, as in the case of all counties, the records dated after the end of 1968 which were required for current work in the new Crown Courts. In the summer of 1971, while they were still housed in Brecon, the records were sorted and arranged and a preliminary list prepared by the staff of the Department of Manuscripts and Records. The records have therefore been accessible to readers from the moment of their arrival in the Library in September 1972. Compared with the surviving Quarter Sessions records of most Welsh counties, those for Breconshire begin early and are remarkably well-preserved, there being very few gaps in the main classes. The most notable of these classes are Sessions Rolls, 1690-1968; Order Books, 1670-1956; Bridges, order book and papers, 1819-86; Constabulary papers, 1838 - 96; County Gaol, papers, 1804-78; Roads Board, minute books and papers, 1848-82; Shire Hall, papers relating to its erection, 1840-54; Treasurer's account books, 1791-1894; Enclosure Awards, seventeen in number, 1817-65; Jurors' Books and Returns of Jurors, 1728-1914; Oath Books, 1714-1909; about 200 sets of deposited plans, etc., of public undertakings, 1792-1931; Sacrament Certificates, 1691-1707; Clerk of the Peace, letter books, 1839-1905; Clerk of the Peace, annual bundles of letters received, 1860-92; Returns of Prisoners, 1836-1912; Commissions of the Peace, 1699-1871; Lieutenancy records (militia) (four items only), 1779-1831; and Breconshire Turnpike Trust, minute books, etc., 1767-1845.
