202 London Rational Tract Society

202.1

Tracts, series 1-3. London: Rational Tract Society, 183-1v., ill., port. 19cm.

The 'Tracts' were published by the Rational Tract Society. The Tract Society was set up in May 1837 at the Manchester Congress of the Association of All Classes of All Nations (originally founded as the British and Foreign Consolidated Association of Industry, Humanity and Knowledge in 1834, and changed its name in 1835 AACN). In 1839 The Universal Community Society of Rational Religionists (Rational Society) was established, when the Association of All Classes of All Nations, and the National Community Friendly Society established by Owenites in 1837 amalgamated; its aims were promoted through the journal New Moral World founded by Owen in 1834, which replaced Crisis.
