INAUGURAL LECTURE

Weathering the frightful hurricane which brought havoc to the South of England, Mr John Grigg succeeded in reaching Aberystwyth on 16 October 1987 to deliver the inaugural lecture of the Welsh Political Archive. His subject was Lloyd George and Wales. Lloyd George would have been delighted, by the weather, the subject, the speaker and the occasion. He loved storms; his Welshness ran deep; the speaker was the author of an authoritative and sympathetic multi-volume biography; and the National Library of Wales was (as the speaker reminded his audience) a beneficiary of Lloyd George’s favour when he was at the Treasury.

In an eloquent lecture, Mr Grigg gave a thoughtful analysis of Lloyd George’s relationship with the land that nurtured him and which came to expect so much of him. He traced Lloyd George’s views on Welsh issues and emphasised his favourable treatment of Wales when in power. He presented much interesting evidence, pointing, for example, to the extra moneys granted to Welsh colleges and the National Library by Lloyd George and to his comment: ‘What’s the use of being a Welsh Chancellor of the Exchequer if one can do nothing for Wales?’. He also referred to that ‘Welsh Mafia’ of advisers and civil servants who joined Lloyd George’s entourage when he became Prime Minister.

The large audience present at the lecture, and those unable to be there, will be pleased to learn that the lecture has been published by the National Library of Wales (for full details see below).

The Welsh Political Archive’s annual lecture for 1988 will be held on Friday 4 November. The lecturer will be Dr Kenneth O Morgan who has recently been appointed the Principal of the University College of Wales, Aberystwyth.

Database of Welsh Election Results
The Welsh Political Archive, in conjunction with the National Library's Automation Unit, is in the process of setting up a computerised database of Welsh election results. The database will include all Welsh district, county, parliamentary, and E.E.C. election results backdated, eventually, to 1973 when local government was reorganised.

In preparation at present is a booklet containing the General Election Results for 1983 and 1987 with an introduction by Dr Denis Balsom of the Department of Politics, Aberystwyth. It is hoped that this booklet will be published during June 1988.
HENRY RICHARD (1812–1888)

Mae'r flywyddyn 1988 yn achlysur dathlu nifer o ddigwyddiadau pwysig yn ein hanes. Cofrin yr arbenig am ymdangosiad cyfeiriaid yr Esgob William Morgan, o'r Beibl yn 1588 ac am orchfygiad yr Armada yn yr un flywyddyn. Y mae'n werth cofio hefyd i ganrif fynd heibio ers marwolaeth Henry Richard, 'Apostol Heddwch', ar 20fed o Awst 1888.

Ceir nifer sylweddol o lythyrau oddi wrth Richard a chyfeiriaidau at ei waith mewn sawl casgliad yn y Llyfrgell Genedlaethol. Cofrin amanaon bennaf efallai fel y boddugwr Rhyddfrydol ym etholiad 1868 ym Merthyr Tudful, er yn 1865 daethai allan yn ymgeisydd dros sir Abertffrith, ond tynnodd ym ol. Ceir un o'r cyfeiriaid cynharaf at ei ymgeisyddiaeth ym Merthyr mewn wyliwr at Samuel Roberts, 6 Awst 1867: 'I have just been seeing a highly respectable deputation from Merthyr and Aberdare inviting me to become a candidate for the representation of the new seat'. (NLW 13197C).

Flywyddyn yn ddiweddarach soniodd wrth Thomas Gee am 'a most encouraging account of my prospects and a very discouraging one of Bruce's' (NLW 8308D).

Yn 1935 cyflwynodd ei nithoedd, Magdalen a Mary Evans, Llundain, nifer o gyfrolau o eiddo Richard, ac yn eu plith ei ddyddiadur am 1853, 1854 a 1863 (NLW 10199B), lle ceir amryw gyfeiriaidau at ei waith yn y modiad heddwch, a chyfres o ddyddiadauon taith, 1849–86 (NLW 10,200–8). Yn y cyfnod hwn bu'n teithio yn Fraïnc, yr Almaen, yr Eidal, y Swistir a'r Alban. Ceir hefyd gofrestr deuluoedd a gadwyd gan Ebenezer Richard, Tregaron, tad Henry, rhwng 1809 a 1836 (NLW 10196C), lle gwelir cyfeiriaid at enedigaeth Henry, 3 Ebrill 1812. Ar 11 Tachwedd 1835 cyfeiriaeth at 'one of the most solemn, weighty and momentous days of our lives being called upon to attend at the Ordination of our dearly beloved Henry at Marlborough Chapel in the Old Kent Road'.

Ymhylith papurau'r diweddar John Victor Evans, a ddaeth i law yn 1980, ceir ffrwyth ymchwili manwl Mr Evans ar yrfa Henry Richard yng Nghymru a niifer o ffnynnolau gwreiddio a gasgliwyd ganrifo. Yn eu plith mae ugain llythyr oddi wrth Richard at ei rieni pan yn fyfriwr ynghyd dros hanner halynt y Highbury, Llundain, 1830–1, a llythyr oddi wrth drysorydd y coleg at Ebenezer Richard. 28 Awst 1830, yn cyfeirio at Henry: 'I am rather pleased with his appearance but he is quite a stranger and has never preached'. Ceir hefyd ateb Ebenezer: '... 'My dear child has been made the subject of a divine, supernatural and a holy change some years back'.

Mewn llythyr at Mr Evans yn 1922 dywed y Parch Gwylm Davies: 'It is amazing how Henry Richard's work has been neglected'. Er i lawer iawn o waith gael ei wneud ar yrfa a phwysegrywydd Richard ers hynny, hwyrrach y bydd y flywyddyn hon o dathlu yn gyfele inni all-ystried o ddifrif ei gyfraniad ac arwyddocâd ei waith i rinnau heddiw.

CLWM

Following discussions at a meeting of CLWM, a forum of Welsh librarians, questionnaires were sent by the Welsh Political Archive to County Librarians asking for information on their holdings relating to Welsh politics. The Archive is grateful to those Librarians who have replied to the questionnaire as this has assisted the Archive in building up its data on sources on Welsh political history.

Most libraries now collect political pamphlets and leaflets and some, such as Aberdare Central Library, hold ephemera dating from 1837 onwards. Local election literature is also being collected; in Clwyd the policy is that all libraries should collect such literature. An interesting early minute book, the Welsh Liberal Members Committee Minute Book, 1886–1889, is preserved at the Central Library, Newport. A photocopy of this has been acquired by the Welsh Political Archive (ref NLW Facs 627).

DERBYNIAU / ACQUISITIONS

Labour Party (Wales) Archive
One of the major sources on modern Welsh political history is the Labour Party (Wales) Archive deposited in the Welsh Political Archive in 1985 (see Newsletter, no 1, Winter 1985–86). The Archive has now received a further group of papers. This group includes over sixty files of correspondence and papers dating from 1951 to 1982. Among the subjects covered are Devolution, Broadcasting in Wales, By-Elections (1966–82), General Elections and European Elections.
The Labour Party (Wales) Archive is subject to the standard Labour Party embargo of 15 years.

Papurau Dafydd Wigley
Yn Hydref 1987 derbynwyd casgliad sylweddol o ohebiaeth etholaethol Mr Dafydd Wigley AS. Dawr’r ohebiaeth hon o Swyddfa Plaid Cymru, Caermarfon, ac mae’n cynnwys rhai miloedd o lythyrion oddi wrth etholwyr Arfon yn dyddio o 1974, pan etholwyd Mr Wigley yn Aelod Seneddol Am y tro cyntaf, hyd y 1983. Ar hyn o bryd, nid oes modd gweld y papurau hyn heb ganiatâd yr adnwydd.
(The constituency correspondence, 1974–83, of Mr Dafydd Wigley MP has been placed on deposit. For the time being it can only be consulted with the depositor’s permission.)

Cymric Federation Press Papers
For many years the Cymric Federation Press, Cardiff, printed all the conference reports, posters and pamphlets of the National Union of Mineworkers (South Wales Area) as well as printing many thousands of leaflets on behalf of the Labour Party.
Following the recent closure of the Press, the Welsh Political Archive was given copies of a wide range of material printed by the Press between 1950 and 1985. These include, for example, Harold Finch MP’s Election Addresses from 1950 to 1966 and leaflets printed on behalf of thirteen Ward Labour Parties in Cardiff covering the period 1961 to 1986.

Conservatives on microfilm
The Archive has recently purchased microfilm copies of files (refs CC02 and CC04) relating to the Conservative Party in Wales, 1948–64, from the Conservative Party Archives at the Bodleian Library, Oxford (ref NLW Film 743–4).

Viscount Towympandy Papers
A further group of correspondence and papers has been added to the papers already donated by Lord Towympandy (see Newsletter, No 1, Winter 1985–86).
This group consists of some thousands of letters and documents which date from the period 1986–87, and reflect Lord Towympandy’s wide range of interests following his retirement as Speaker and his elevation to the House of Lords. These include work for several charities including The National Children’s Home.
The permission of Lord Towympandy is required to see his Papers.

Alliance Committee for Wales
With the foundation of a new party, the Social and Liberal Democrats, the records of the now defunct Alliance will be of considerable interest to future historians of the realignment of British politics during the 1980s. It is therefore gratifying to note that the Archive has acquired the Minutes of the Alliance Committee for Wales for the period 1985 to 1987, through the good offices of the Secretary of the Committee, Councillor Cecilia Barton. These Minutes are subject to a ten year embargo.

Archifau Plaid Cymru
Derbynwyd grwp arall o Archifau Plaid Cymru drwy law Mr Elwyn Roberts, cyn-drefnydd y Blaid.
Mae’r grwp hwn yn cynnwys papurau sy’n dyddio gan fwyaf o’r 1960au a’r 1970au ond y mae yna hefyd Lyfr Cofnodion Cynaddeudd Blynyddol Plaid Cymru, 1933–63. Ymhllith yr ohebiaeth ceir Ilythyr aan nifer o Bleidywr amlyg fel Dr Kate Roberts, D J Williams, Ted Merriman ac Islwyn Ffowc Elis a chasgliad diddorol o Ilythyr aan Hywel Hughes, Bogota, 1957–70.
(An additional deposit to the Plaid Cymru Archive has been received)

Welsh Liberal Party Archives
As this Newsletter was going to press, a large group of papers of the Welsh Liberal Party was placed on deposit. This group will be amalgamated with an earlier group deposited by Mrs Lorna Schärer, former secretary of the WLP, in September 1987.
At present these papers are being sorted and listed. Further details will be given in the next issue of the Newsletter.
