USE OF PERSONAL CAMERAS

TO CREATE COPIES IN THE READING ROOMS

Readers wishing to create their own copies in the Reading rooms using personal cameras must understand that most items are protected by copyright. It is against the law to make a copy of any type of work that is in copyright unless the copyright holders have granted their permission or an exception applies.

- Personal cameras may only be used for the purpose of private research or commercial research NOT for publication)
- The relevant daily fee must be paid (£20 for private research , £50 for Commercial research and NOT for publication) before you can use your personal camera.
- You must keep within the following restrictions when copying:
  - unpublished literary, dramatic or musical works in compliance with copyright law (and after consultation with reading room staff)
  - artistic works (including artworks, photographs and maps) or any kind of print or published work that is out of copyright (and after consultation with reading room staff)
- The use of camera flash is not permitted
- Photographing original restricted manuscripts is not permitted

It is the responsibility of the person using the camera to ensure that the creation and use of the copies is lawful. The Library does not accept any responsibility of any offence committed by those using this service.
